

INTERNSHIP

1. The duration of Compulsory Rotatory Internship is one year and the student is eligible to join the compulsory internship programme after passing all the subjects from first to the final professional examination and the internship programme is start after the declaration of the result of final professional examination.

2. The Internship Programme and time distribution is as follows:-

- (a) The interns shall receive an orientation regarding programme details of internship programme along with the rules and regulations, in an orientation workshop, which is organised during the first five days of the beginning of internship programme and a work book is given to each intern, in which the intern shall enter date-wise details of activities undertaken by him or her during his or her training;
- (b) Every intern is provisionally registering himself with the concerned State Board or Council and obtains a certificate to this effect before joining the internship program;
- (c) The daily working hours of intern is not less than eight hours;
- (d) Normally one-year internship programme is divided into clinical training of six months in the Ayurvedic hospital attached to the college and six months in Primary Health Centre or Community Health Centre or Rural Hospital or District Hospital or Civil Hospital or any Government Hospital of modern medicine.

3. The clinical training of six months in the Ayurvedic hospital attached to the college or in non-teaching hospitals approved by Central Council of Indian Medicine is conducted as follows:-

Sr. No.	Departments	Distribution of six months
i.	Kayachikitsa	Two months
ii.	Shalya	One month
iii.	Shalakya	One month
iv.	Prasuti evam Striroga	One month
v.	Balroga-Kaumarabhritya	Fifteen days
vi.	Panchakarma	Fifteen days

4. Six months training of interns is carried out with an object to orient and acquaint the intern with the National health Programme and the intern shall undertake such training in one of the following institutes, namely:-

- (a) Primary Health Centre.
- (b) Community Health Centre or District Hospital.
- (c) Any recognised or approved hospital of modern medicine.
- (d) Any recognised or approved Ayurvedic hospital or Dispensary.